MAMMOGRAMS,

MYTHS,

&

YOUR MELONS

Have you or a loved one faced the dilemma of dealing with cancer and not know where to turn? Perhaps, you thought you would have to travel to NYC to get the best possible care? You would be wrong! Memorial Sloan Kettering, one of the leading cancer hospitals in the Northeast has an amazing regional site in Bergen County. In this presentation, discussion will focus on dispelling the myths of mammograms and breast cancer, especially in older adults. Just because your melons are past its peak season doesn't mean you stop eating fruit salad. Learn all the facts and get educated on your own personal fruit. You're never too old to "check your melons!"
